

Yavneh: A Jewish Renewal Community

Invites the Raleigh/Durham/Chapel Hill community to join us for

High Holy Days 2016

1725 N. New Hope Road, Raleigh 27604 (@ St. Mark's Episcopal Church)

Yavneh members and friends • Jews looking for something different
 Unaffiliated Jews • Spiritual seekers of all faiths

For the past five years, Rabbi Raachel Jurovics and Cantor Karen Kumin have led the Yavneh community and guests on a spiritual journey through Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, the most sacred holy days of our tradition.

The egalitarian service is conducted in a combination of Hebrew (with full transliteration) and English, drawing from both the traditional liturgy and a variety of modern interpretations. Cantor Kumin, along with our volunteer singers and musicians, inspires us with niggunim (Hasidic melodies), prayers, and songs.

Participants represent a variety of Jewish and non-Jewish backgrounds at every level of knowledge and observance. All are warmly welcomed regardless of affiliation, age, race, gender identity, or sexual orientation. There is no cost to attend, although we do ask that those who are financially able make a donation to help cover expenses.
